PETITION FOR DAMAGES

COMES NOW Plaintiff, Mary Macaulay, by and through her attorneys of record, Helmut Starr, Keith Cheung and Anastasia Brubaker of Curtis, Heinz, Garrett & O'Keefe PC, and for her causes of action against Defendant St. Louis BOA Plaza, LLC and Defendant Jones Lang LaSalle Americas, Inc., states and avers as follows:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Plaintiff Mary Macaulay was employed in the City of St. Louis and was a resident of Saint Louis County, Missouri.

2. Defendant St. Louis BOA Plaza, LLC (“BOA Plaza”) is a Delaware limited liability company, duly licensed and registered to do business in the State of Missouri, and is the owner of the building commonly known as Bank of America Plaza, 800 Market Street within the City of St. Louis, MO (the “Property”).

3. Defendant BOA Plaza conducts systematic and routine business in the State of Missouri, including in St. Louis City, and is subject to the general and long arm jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of St. Louis City, State of Missouri.

4. At all relevant times to this action, Defendant Jones Lang LaSalle Americas, Inc. (“JLL”) managed and/or controlled the Property and all of its premises. Defendant JLL was responsible for the management, general maintenance, upkeep, and safety of the Property. Defendant had a duty to inspect the premises for dangerous conditions before invitees and/or members of the public were allowed on the Property.

5. The tortious acts, and the injuries caused, discussed herein occurred in within the City of St. Louis, Missouri, providing this Court with jurisdiction and venue over the matter.

6. At all times relevant herein mentioned, Plaintiff was a guest and invitee of Defendants. Defendant had the expectation of gaining a material benefit from Plaintiff’s visit to the Property. Plaintiff, in turn, was relying on Defendants to prevent an unreasonable risk of harm to her.

7. On or about August 14, 2018, Plaintiff was entering the main entrance to the Property by way of the revolving doors and was tripped immediately upon exiting the revolving doors by a rug that was not lying flat/level on the floor of the entrance and lobby of the building.

8. Plaintiff tripped, fell and seriously injured her right hip, necessitating surgical intervention and a complete hip replacement.

9. Defendants and their agents and employees owed a duty to inspect the premises on a regular basis, note any dangerous conditions thereof, and remedy, barricade or warn guests and/or invitees about such dangerous conditions so that guests or invitees would not be unnecessarily injured.

10. Defendants owed a duty of using reasonable care under the circumstances.

11. Defendants and their employees or agents knew or should or could have known of the existence of the dangerous condition of the entryway, floor and rug.

12. Defendants, their employees and/or agents did not use ordinary or reasonable care to: i) maintain the entryway, floor and rug; ii) warn of the dangerous condition; iii) barricade or mark the dangerous condition; or iv) simply remove or correct the dangerous condition of the entryway, floor and rug.

COUNT I: PREMISES LIABILITY
(As against Defendant BOA Plaza)

13. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 12, above, as though fully set forth herein.

14. At all times herein concerned, Defendant BOA Plaza had actual control and possession of the Property.

15. While exercising ordinary care under the circumstances, Plaintiff was walking into the main entryway of the Property, an area where guests and invitees are known to walk and are invited into the lobby of the building, when she fell due to a rug sticking up further than the surrounding floor and located immediately at the exit of the revolving door entryway into the main lobby of the building. The rug caused Plaintiff to severely injure her right hip.

16. The entryway, floor and rug Plaintiff tripped on constituted a dangerous condition.

17. The dangerous conditions were created by Defendant BOA Plaza and its agents or employees.

18. Defendant BOA Plaza or its employees or agents did not exercise reasonable or ordinary care to remove, remedy, barricade, mark, or warn of the dangerous condition of the Property.

19. As a result of the dangerous condition, the Property of Defendant BOA Plaza was not reasonably safe.

20. Plaintiff's fall and the injuries and damages sustained by her are the direct and proximate result of the negligence, carelessness, faults and omissions of Defendant BOA Plaza in one, more, or all of the following particulars:

- a. failing to use reasonable or ordinary care to remedy, barricade, guard against, mark or warn about the dangerous condition, when Defendant knew, or in exercise of reasonable or ordinary care, should and have known about the dangerous condition of the Property;
- b. failing to carefully inspect the entryway, floor and rug for dangerous conditions, such as the one presented by the rug at the revolving door sticking up unreasonably and causing a tripping hazard; and,
- c. failing to remedy or warn of the rug sticking up unnaturally from the floor at the exit of the revolving door where invitees normally walk into the lobby of the building, and causing Plaintiff to fall and suffer injuries.

21. Defendant BOA Plaza's negligence, carelessness, faults and omissions, as aforesaid, directly and proximately caused or contributed to cause Plaintiff to sustain bodily injury, pain and suffering to her right hip, necessitating surgical intervention and a complete hip replacement. Due to her injuries, Plaintiff required care and treatment from hospitals, physicians, and other health care professionals, all at substantial expense. Plaintiff was caused and continues to have pain, suffering, inconvenience, impaired mobility, impaired activities of daily living, the ordinary emotional distress that goes with a serious fall and her resulting injuries, ongoing pain, loss of quality of life and inconvenience.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment against Defendant BOA Plaza for damages that are fair and reasonable, for costs incurred herein, and for such other and further damages as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

COUNT II: NEGLIGENCE
(As against Defendant BOA Plaza)

22. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 21, above, as though fully set forth herein.

23. The injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff, as set forth above, were the direct and proximate result of the negligent acts and/or omissions of Defendant BOA Plaza, its agents and employees, and each of them, in one, more or all of the following particulars:

- a. failing to use reasonable or ordinary care to remedy, barricade, guard against, mark or warn about the dangerous condition, when Defendant knew, or in exercise of reasonable or ordinary care, should and have known about the dangerous condition of the Property;
- b. failing to carefully inspect the entryway, floor and rug for dangerous conditions, such as the one presented by the rug at the revolving door sticking up unreasonably and causing a tripping hazard; and,
- c. failing to remedy or warn of the rug sticking up unnaturally from the floor at the exit of the revolving door where invitees normally walk into the lobby of the building, and causing Plaintiff to fall and suffer injuries.

24. Defendant BOA Plaza's negligence, carelessness, faults and omissions, as aforesaid, directly and proximately caused or contributed to cause Plaintiff to sustain bodily injury, pain and suffering to her right hip, necessitating surgical intervention and a complete hip replacement. Due to her injuries, Plaintiff required care and treatment from hospitals, physicians, and other health care professionals, all at substantial expense. Plaintiff was caused and continues to have pain, suffering, inconvenience, impaired mobility, impaired activities of daily living, the ordinary emotional distress that goes with a serious fall and her resulting injuries, ongoing pain, loss of quality of life and inconvenience.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment against Defendant BOA Plaza for damages that are fair and reasonable, for costs incurred herein, and for such other and further damages as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

COUNT III: PREMISES LIABILITY
(As against Defendant JLL)

25. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 21, above, as though fully set forth herein.

26. At all times herein concerned, Defendant JLL served as BOA Plaza's building manager and had actual control and possession of the Property.

27. While exercising ordinary care under the circumstances, Plaintiff was walking into the main entryway of the Property, an area where guests and invitees are known to walk and are invited into the lobby of the building, when she fell due to a rug sticking up further than the surrounding floor and located immediately at the exit of the revolving door entryway into the main lobby of the building. The rug caused Plaintiff to severely injure her right hip.

28. The entryway, floor and rug Plaintiff tripped on constituted a dangerous condition.

29. The dangerous conditions were created by Defendant JLL and its agents or employees.

30. Defendant JLL or its employees or agents did not exercise reasonable or ordinary care to remove, remedy, barricade, mark, or warn of the dangerous condition of the Property.

31. As a result of the dangerous condition, the Property managed by Defendant JLL was not reasonably safe.

32. Plaintiff's fall and the injuries and damages sustained by her are the direct and proximate result of the negligence, carelessness, faults and omissions of Defendant JLL in one, more, or all of the following particulars:

- a. failing to use reasonable or ordinary care to remedy, barricade, guard against, mark or warn about the dangerous condition, when Defendant knew, or in exercise of reasonable or ordinary care, should and have known about the dangerous condition of the Property;
- b. failing to carefully inspect the entryway, floor and rug for dangerous conditions, such as the one presented by the rug at the revolving door sticking up unreasonably and causing a tripping hazard; and,
- c. failing to remedy or warn of the rug sticking up unnaturally from the floor at the exit of the revolving door where invitees normally walk into the lobby of the building, and causing Plaintiff to fall and suffer injuries.

33. Defendant JLL's negligence, carelessness, faults and omissions, as aforesaid, directly and proximately caused or contributed to cause Plaintiff to sustain bodily injury, pain and suffering to her right hip, necessitating surgical intervention and a complete hip replacement. Due to her injuries, Plaintiff required care and treatment from hospitals, physicians, and other health care professionals, all at substantial expense. Plaintiff was caused and continues to have pain, suffering, inconvenience, impaired mobility, impaired activities of daily living, the ordinary emotional distress that goes with a serious fall and her resulting injuries, ongoing pain, loss of quality of life and inconvenience.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment against Defendant JLL for damages that are fair and reasonable, for costs incurred herein, and for such other and further damages as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

COUNT IV: NEGLIGENCE
(As against Defendant JLL)

34. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 21, above, as though fully set forth herein.

35. The injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff, as set forth above, were the direct and proximate result of the negligent acts and/or omissions of Defendant JLL, its agents and employees, and each of them, in one, more or all of the following particulars:

- a. failing to use reasonable or ordinary care to remedy, barricade, guard against, mark or warn about the dangerous condition, when Defendant knew, or in exercise of reasonable or ordinary care, should and have known about the dangerous condition of the Property;
- b. failing to carefully inspect the entryway, floor and rug for dangerous conditions, such as the one presented by the rug at the revolving door sticking up unreasonably and causing a tripping hazard; and,
- c. failing to remedy or warn of the rug sticking up unnaturally from the floor at the exit of the revolving door where invitees normally walk into the lobby of the building, and causing Plaintiff to fall and suffer injuries.

36. Defendant JLL's negligence, carelessness, faults and omissions, as aforesaid, directly and proximately caused or contributed to cause Plaintiff to sustain bodily injury, pain and suffering to her right hip, necessitating surgical intervention and a complete hip replacement. Due to her injuries, Plaintiff required care and treatment from hospitals, physicians, and other health care professionals, all at substantial expense. Plaintiff was caused and continues to have pain, suffering, inconvenience, impaired mobility, impaired activities of daily living, the ordinary emotional distress that goes with a serious fall and her resulting injuries, ongoing pain, loss of quality of life and inconvenience.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment against Defendant JLL for damages that are fair and reasonable, for costs incurred herein, and for such other and further damages as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.
